PARTNER SPOTLIGHT: SHANNON IRISH DANCE ACADEMY

If you are a frequent patron of the McMorran Place Theatre, you may be familiar with the Irish Nutcracker performed by Shannon Irish Dance Academy. For the past several years, this competitive and recreational dance school has presented Irish traditions and dancing to the public on McMorran's stage and at the Michigan Renaissance Festival. Now, they are branching out to offer Irish dance classes in Port Huron!

Established in Rochester Hills in 2013, Shannon Irish Dance Academy is excited to honor and keep the traditions and culture of Ireland alive!

The Academy is registered through An Coimisiún Le Rincí Gaelacha (CLRG) and offers a complete curriculum developed by certified Irish dance instructors (TCRG). All dancers will receive a traditional and authentic Irish Dance experience with introductions to Irish music, history, and language (Irish). Additionally, classes specialize in safe, effective, and informed dance practices.

Shannon Irish Dance Academy believes anyone can learn Irish dance regardless of age or level and as such, offer classes for students ages three years to adults and everyone in between. We believe in teaching self-confidence, teamwork, discipline, respect for others, and grace under pressure; skills that will carry on in all facets of life. Our welcoming team of dancers, families, and teachers helps to develop a strong sense of community and lasting friendships.
